PENEZUELA HEBELS AGGRESSIFE. Decisive Battle With the Government Forces Expected at Valencia.

Broad Trays .....

The cat-le and mail advices of the past week from Venezuela show that both the insurgents and the Government are determined to bring to an end the reboilton, which is daily assuming greater proportions. Venezuelans in this city expect to hear fa decisive battle within a week. It will probably take place at Va-lencia. Gen. José Manuel Hernandez, leader of the revolution, who in the event of insurgent success will become President of Venezuela, has now nearly 6,000 men in the fleid, which is said to be the largest rebel force that has ever taken arms against the Government in Venezuela.

The last reports received here of Gen. Hernandez said he had taken Calabozo, in the State of Miranda, and was on his way to Valencia. He was recniorced by 2,000 men under his Chief of Staff Gen. Loiz Loretto Lima, who had captured Barquicemeto. Those forces will be further augmented by those of Gen. Samuel be in the raugmented by those of Gen. Samuel Acesta and the entire body will sweep down on the Government troops at Valencia who number about five thousand. Both sides are well armed and the result will protably decide the war. Should the rebuls be victorious it will be an easy matter for them to march on to Carneas as the troops at Valencia represent the strength of the dovernment. In fact the revolutionests report that they have a large force now on the outskirts of Valencia and between the latter city and Carneas.

This assertion seems to be confirmed by the determination of the Government to send any piles from the capital to Valencia via La Guayra, which will take two days, whereas by rail from Carneas to Valencia requires only five hours.

Ex-President Andrade, who is now at San Juan, P. R. is trying hard to revenge his overthirow by Gen. Cipriano Castro. His latest Aleiandro Urbaneia through whom this deal was to be effected was streeted recently in Caracas. On him was found a list of war supplies which then. Andrade offered Gen. Hernander. #### Men's Silk Lined Frock Coat and Vest Made to Order at $25.00.

The frock or Prince Albert cost and vest are probably the most used dress garments in a man's wardrobe. The Liquor Dealers' Association of the Seventeenth police precinct, a large part of which is in the Ninth Assembly district, held its annual meeting on Friday evening at the Utah House, 26: West Twenty-fifth street, and John McGarry of 268 Ninth avenue, for fifteen years President of the organization and a strong supporter of John C. Sheehau, was beaten for the presidency by Thomas M. Murray, a member of the Goodwin-Smith faction McGarry is a Sheehan election district captain, and Murray is the landlord of the Horatio Seymour Club, the anti-Sheehan organization. Up to fifteen minutes before the association met it was not known that there would be any opposition to Mctiarry. When Murray's name was proposed Bernard Coursney, Chal man of the Tammany District Committee, and other sheehan men in the association hustled out to get votes enough to elect McGarry. Murray's supporters had a plurality of five. It was said yesterday that Police Captain

It was said yesterday that Police Captain Schmittherger, who has had command of the present for some time, had been enforcing the liquor laws more vigorously than the asiloon-keepers had exiscited. Capt. Schmittberger has been transferred uptown and Police Captain Waish has taken his place. The change is said to be pleasing to the saloon-keepers, Many of them helieve that it was made at the suggestion of the Goodwin-Smith faction, and they showed their gratitude by electing a Goodwin-Smith man President of their organization, which has a good deal of influence.

Assistant Corporation Counsel Mulially said yesterday that McLarthy was Surmerly a client of his, that had hever been embloyed by any one because he was a man worth, probably, $160,000 and confined himself to speculation, buying and selling stores, stocks, &c. Mr. Mulially said that McCarthy had apparently collapsed on the foor of the batheroom after he had turned on the gas. A burnt match was found in the bathroom. The triends say that he was stricken before he could apply the match to the gas jet. Coroner's Physician Weston said that an inquest would he held to determine the cause of death. Mr. McCarthy's life was insured for several thousand dollars, Dr. Weston learned that McCarthy went to sleep in the diningroum of he flat after an evening spent at home with friends.
